Should these areas be annexed, a Growth Management Plan Amendment will be needed. The amendments will be constructed in a conceptual and do not assign any legally binding land uses to areas not within the city.

The Traditional City through a Conditional Use Permit.